After hearing loads of good things about about the Vermont Catamounts for a few days, the Providence Friars ended any upset dreams the visitors may have held early. PC raced to a 30-point halftime lead and cruised its way to a 106-64 romp. Despite the lofty offensive output, PC's defense was the story of the game. Playing a stingy man-to-man and an aggressive, trapping press, the Friars may have put together their best defensive effort in Keno Davis' short tenure as head coach. The Catamounts were held to 36 percent shooting and turned the ball over a whopping 23 times. CLICK HERE for complete article.
